

I fully support the filing of NCI and believe that the code requirement is an unnecessary burden on many good operators. I feel that the ranks of amateur radio would be swelled by the code elimination and the pool of good operators for emergency service would increase.